

Dogs ARE better than cats!

By Shadrach on Nov 1, 2009 in Dog & Cat Books, CDs, & DVDs, Dog Book Reviews

Well this is my kind of book, WOOF! Although my human doesn't agree with the author, Bradley Trevor Grieve's assessment of cats, I sure do hehe. Except cats are carnivores so we do have THAT in common, WOOF! The title is Why Dogs Are Better Than Cats -- which has now justified dogs everywhere, hehe.

I'm sure that is a primary reason why cats and dogs have been considered enemies - - carnivores always want to eliminate any competition for food sources.

This book was pretty funny and the photography by Rachael Hale is quite simply da bomb! Cat lovers will love this book just for the incredible photographs of cats within this book! Plus, the author does share some of the pluses to owning a cat and some of the challenges to owning a dog, so all is fair in love and war hehe.

Let me share a couple of little tidbits with you from pages 134 and 136:

One can only imagine how much better the world would be if more people had enjoyed the company of a decent dog early in life. Might we, the depraved descendants of Adam and Eve, still be enjoying the vegan nudist utopia of Eden had the original couple sought an honest dog's second opinion about the lies lispd to them by the glittering serpent? Probably. (page 134).

Would the Israelites have escaped bondage in Egypt much faster if they had not been at least partially indoctrinated into cat culture? I say yes. (page 136).

Pretty great kudos for us dogs, WOOF!

Have a pawsitively tail waggin', NATURALLY healthy, Dogs are Better Than Cats day, WOOF!

